THE HORNET

FINIS

The books in the classrooms

Are closed and forsaken,

The bells in the hall are

Muffled and stilled;

The last of farewells by

The Seniors are taken,

The endeavor of years now

At last is fulfilled.

Knowledge

Knowledge is the road to power and wealth ----
Confucius

Knowledge is the key to all doors in the House of Life--

The Genii, called forth from Aladdin's Magic Lamp, brought to reality for him, plans and ideas which otherwise would have been beyond all realms of possibility ---------- Even so, the Lamp of Education brings to light for us countless opportunities, and points the way to our desired goal.

DEDICATION

We, the seniors of 1956, wish to Dedicate this Annual to Miss Harrietta White, Home Economics Supervisor, who so whole-heartedly and willingly gave us many hours of extra time and endeavor without complaint.

Class History of 1955-56

When we started our first year of high school we entered the new school building. We were very proud that we were the first Freshman Class in the new jointure. Our officers from the 50 members of our class were: President, Nils Johannesen; Vice-President, George Dennison; Secretary, Ronnie Stahlman; and Treasurer, Irene Shaffer. Our activities were of the usual variety consisting of ONE wiener roast, skating parties, and a bake sale. These activities were sponsored by Mrs. Kipp and Mr. Porter. To our regret we lost several students in this year. They were Edith Emerick, Junior Leydig, Harold Monnett, Raymond Shaffer, and Lorraine Martz. We also gained some new ones: Richard Minnick, James Harden, and Frank Kisner.

Our Sophomore Class consisted of 48 members of which the officers were: President, George Dennison; Secretary, Alice Shaffer; Treasurer, Irene Shaffer. Our activities this year consisted of skating parties, bake sales, and wiener roasts, Our trip to Gettysburg was canceled. Our sponsors for this year were Miss White and Mr. Stewart. This year our biggest loss of classmates occurred as follows: Richard Close, Max Kelly, George Severs, Donald Harden, Donald Merkel, David Thompson, Robert Willison, Donna Bridges, Florence Hare, James Harden, and Frank Kisner once again. We gained no new students until almost the end of the year when on the scene appeared LaVerne Imler.

In our Junior Year our class was much smaller with only 38 members. Our officers for this year were: President, George Dennison; Vice-President, Ronnie Stahlman; Secretary, Alice Shaffer; Treasurer, Irene Shaffer. Our sponsors were Mrs. Clark and Mr. Miller. The activities stayed pretty much the same with bake sales, skating parties and weiner roasts predominating. We also held a Junior supper and soup sale. We sold candy and cookies at Christmas time and our Class Play "There go the Grooms" was well received. We purchased our class rings this year which were the envy of the school. Alice Dwire left our midst in this year, however, we gained two more students: Naomi Deneen and Ronald Scritchfield.

Our Senior Year is to be our saddest, not because we are graduating into a new life, but because we must say good-by to our many friends and teachers. We didn't have much time for self pity because we were kept hopping with the yearbook, the Hornet, skating parties, our successful Class Play "Crazy but Cute", the planning of the New York trip, the handing out of name cards and pictures to our friends and preparing for the big day--COMMENCEMENT. The class officers were: President, George Dennison; Vice-President, Paul Martz; Secretary, Alice Shaffer and Treasurer, Irene Shaffer, with our sponsors Mr. McVicker and Mr. Bertram. We gained a new student at the beginning of this year, Nancy Witt.

It is difficult to say good-by and it seems so formal to do so, so we will just say "So long for awhile" as we hope to meet and greet our friends again. If not in the near future, the cherishing of the many memories we collected will have to suffice.

Senior Class Will

The 39 adult HORNETS, members of Hyndman High, of the CLASS of 1956, now in a state of retirement, and with the Cup of High School Educational life nearly drained, doth HEREIN and HEREBY present its LAST WILL and TESTAMENT, hereby revoking any or all other GRANTS that have been AFORETO made in the PAST or may be made in the FUTURE.

The CLASS OF 1956, being of SOUND and PHILOSOPHICAL MOOD deems itself qualified to expose for germination its acquired seeds of LEARNING produced development of embryonic learning into FULL RICHNESS of educational life to the less fortunate underclassmen and parties of the Class of 1957. BE IT so known that the ALL GEMS OF SOUND LOGIC, PHYSICAL PROWESS, MENTAL PERSPICACITY, and SPIRITUAL ENDEAVOR be transmitted, IN TOTO, to all classes in HYNDMAN HIGH so that a mere semblance of the CLASS OF 1956's HIGH ACHIEVEMENTS might in some way be transfused into the BLOOD STREAM and be permeated into all the ACADEMIC VEINS of all FUTURE classes.

The CLASS OF 1956 herein imparts the following accrued gems to its IMMEDIATE HEIRS, the Class of 1957 as follows:

GERTRUDE BEALS will pledge her mouse-like ways and retiring demeanor to Norma Sheirer-to be used by the latter whenever a temper tantrum arises;

JAMES BOWER will resign his slow approach to his school life to Cameron Rexrode, the donor's exact opposite;

MAXINE BURKETT will distribute her newly-found even disposition to Janice Bagley;

SYLVA CARPENTER wills her mysterious airs to ONE who will further subjugate them-this to Dorothy Holler;

SARA ANN CHRISTNER will exchange her oft-occurring moody spells for a little of Masilda Willison's nonchalance;

MARY CLAPPER entrusts her ability to get along with others to Lynne Beale;

NAOMI DENEEN apportions her trials and tribulations to Fadra Sneathen;

GEORGE DENNISON consigns a busy Senior year to Don R. Shaffer;

HANNAH DENNISON offers her hard work and perseverence to one who needs more of it-Edith Shaffer;

LULUBELLE EMERICK relinquishes her sunny disposition to Doris Arnold;

GRACE PFEIFFER offers her timid nature to Eileen Madden;

DONALD RIZER leaves his role as a cynic to Earl Campbell;

ALICE and DONA SHAFFER will bestow their likes and dislikes upon newcomer-Delores Albright;

MARIE SHAFFER and NANCY WITT will furnish graphic results on how to be inoffensive in behavior to Carole Schad;
IRENE SHAFFER will transmit her quiet nature to Judith Stuby;
JOYCE SHOUP turns over her doubts to Marlene Lowery;
LEE SHROYER deposits his "Davy Crockett" mannerisms to William Bowser;
ROBERT SHROYER assigns a peaceful and uneventful life to Roger Crawford;
RONNIE SCRITCHFIELD will apportion any acquired crumbs of success to Arden Shaffer;
RONALD STAHLMAN deposits in trust his athletic ability to William Jordan;
LEONA WILLISON surrenders her ability to square dance to Wendyl Thomas;
